

TREATY No 6 150 SPONSORSHIP

In 1876, First Nations and the Crown entered into Treaty 6 at Fort Carlton on August 23rd, Chief Kamiscowesit's (Beardy's) Campsite on August 28th, and Fort Pitt on September 9th. Join us in 2026 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of this historic agreement. This milestone offers a profound opportunity to reflect on our shared history, honour the Spirit and Intent of Treaty, and reaffirm our commitment to its ongoing implementation for future generations.

WITH INITIAL PLANNING PARTNERS

- Treaty 6 Elders, leaders, and citizens.
- Ahtahkakoop Cree Nation
- Beardy's & Okemasis' Cree Nation
- James Smith Cree Nation
- Mistawasis Nêhiyawak
- Muskoday First Nation
- Stoney Knoll First Nation

WE ARE ALL TREATY PEOPLE

The Treaty 6 - 150th Commemoration is guided by ceremony, cultural renewal, and political unity.

This initiative is supported by the Office of the Treaty Commissioner

Pêmiska Tourism, and Treaty 6 Carlton Signatory Bands.

THE VISION: THE WAY WE SEE IT.

“What we speak of and do now will last as long as the sun shines and the river runs, we are looking forward to our children’s children, for we are old and have but few days to live.”

- Chief Mistawasis, Treaty 6, 1876

“When I hold your hand and touch your heart, let us be as one.”

- Chief Weekaskookwasayin, Treaty 6, 1876

MISSION: TREATY PROMISES

Treaty partners committed to a relationship of Peace and Friendship. Peace is more than an undertaking to not make war. It speaks to the positive undertaking of the parties to nurture and root their Treaty relationship in the principles of good, healthy, happy, respectful relationships (miyo-wicêhtowin), grounded in the laws governing relationships among relatives (wâhkôhtowin), anchored in the principles of mutual sharing and livelihood (pimâcihowin), with a view to renewing the life (pimâtisiwin) of everything in Creation.

INVITED DIGNITARIES

Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action

Number	Call to Action	How it works towards the CTA
#45	Reaffirm the nation-to-nation relationship between Aboriginal peoples and the Crown, based on recognition of rights, respect, co-operation, and partnership.	The event brings together Treaty 6 signatory First Nations, Crown representatives, and dignitaries — including invitations to King Charles III and federal/provincial leaders — in the original Treaty-making location.
#57	Reaffirm the nation-to-nation relationship between Aboriginal peoples and the Crown, based on recognition of rights, respect, co-operation, and partnership	Public sessions, cultural presentations, and historical exhibits will provide education on Treaty history and obligations to all attendees, including government representatives.
#79	Collaborate with Aboriginal peoples to develop and implement a reconciliation framework for Canadian heritage and commemoration.	The event is Indigenous-led, culturally guided, and rooted in ceremony to ensure respectful representation and preservation of heritage.
#92	Adopt UNDRIP as a reconciliation framework and apply it to corporate policy and operational activities involving Indigenous peoples.	Sponsorship demonstrates corporate commitment to reconciliation, Indigenous rights, and respectful partnerships, fulfilling the corporate sector's responsibility under this Call to Action.
#94	Replace the Oath of Citizenship to include the commitment to faithfully observe the Treaties.	The event re-centres public awareness on Treaties as living agreements, reinforcing the importance of honouring Treaty commitments in civic life.
